“Martyrs of the Americas:
Their Prophetic Message”

Guest speaker:
Salvadoran Bishop Medardo Gomez
Sunday, December 11th, 2005
2:00-4:30 p.m.
St. Therese Church
9525 W. Bluemound Road

Through the horrors of the civil war in El Salvador to the tremendous economic want and social violence in the decades since the peace accords, Bishop Gomez has boldly proclaimed that the Gospel message requires a Christian walk in solidarity with the poor (www.makedisciples.com/medardogomez.htm).

More about Bishop Gomez:

President, Lutheran Churches of Central America and Panama; Executive Committee Member of the Lutheran World Federation, Geneva; President, International Association Against Torture, New York.

Author of And The Word Became History and Fire Against Fire

Awards include: 1990 Oscar Romero Award (Houston); 1992 Candidate for the Nobel Peace Prize; 1992- World-wide Justice and Peace Award (Denver)

This event is free and open to the public.
