The Archdiocese of Milwaukee is proud to welcome John Findlater, educational consultant to Catholic schools and parishes throughout the United States, for a special program. Mr. Findlater, who has been actively involved with Catholic high schools across the country for more than 25 years, will share why a Catholic high school education is “the gift for a lifetime.” Mr. Findlater’s presentation will help parents of middle school students understand the importance of a Gospel-centered mission found in Catholic schools.

Mr. Findlater will discuss how a Catholic high school education can have a positive impact throughout a child’s life. Part of Mr. Findlater’s presentation will address the importance of parents supporting and reinforcing what their children learn in school.

Following Mr. Findlater’s presentation, parents will be able to visit a High School Showcase with representatives from the 13 Catholic high schools in the 10-county Archdiocese of Milwaukee. Parents can learn more about the terrific things that are happening in Catholic high schools in southeastern Wisconsin.

This event is sponsored by the Archdiocese of Milwaukee’s Office for Schools, Office for School Development, and Communication Office.
