

SAC STATE

March 1987

A quick look at some of the exciting things happening here at Sac State:

I met Dave one afternoon and asked if he would like to become a Christian. He responded, "Yah, I've been dooing a lot of thinking and my life is pretty meaningless right now." Soon he bowed his heart and asked Christ into his life. The next night, after getting off late from work, he rushed to our weekly meeting and thanked me repeatedly for telling him how to become a Christian. He then went around to thank other staff members for telling people about Christ.

During one of our weekly meetings Karen, another staff member, and I presented a spirited talk on God's plan for friendship, sex, and intimacy. Afterwards I met Jeff, who was challenged by the message, and we set up a time to get together the next day. When we met he told me how confused he was about all the religious groups around--in fact, he was close to becoming a Jehovah's Witness. I shared some things about the uniqueness of Jesus and then asked if he would like to know how to have a relationship with Jesus. He said, "Sure," so I shared the Four Spiritual Laws with him. I was amazed as the Spirit of Truth touched Jeff's confused heart and led him to Christ. Jeff bowed his head soon after and became a "new creature in Christ."

Tony is the starting quarterback for Sacramento State and has grown radically in his faith. He became convinced that he had to share Christ with his teammates so during a team meeting he said he wanted to talk about Christ with anybody interested after the meeting. Ten guys stayed after the meeting and Tony shared the Four Spiritual Laws with each of them. He was asked afterward how it went and Tony quietly responded, "Pretty good." "Well, what happened?" "I shared the Four Laws and some guys told me it really made sense and they wanted to be in a Bible study." "How many guys, Tony?" "All ten."

God has been doing such exciting things here and I am constantly thanking Him for allowing me to be used for His purposes to seek and save the lost. Thank you so very much for your enabling me to serve at Sac State. I appreciate you so very much!
