MYNIC, MIMOS BERHAD (MYNIC)

REINTRODUCING
2ND LEVEL '.MY'
DOMAIN NAME SPACE

PUBLIC CONSULTATION PAPER

25 May 2005

1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 Context

Under the Communications and Multimedia Act 1998 (“the Act”), the Malaysian Communications and Multimedia Commission (“MCMC”) is vested with the control, planning, administration, management and assignment of the numbering and electronic addressing of network services and applications services under Section 179(1) of the Act.

MYNIC, a division of MIMOS Berhad, was designated by IANA as the “country-code” top-level domain (ccTLD) manager in 1987. The ‘.my’ top-level domain (TLD) is assigned to local Internet communities according to the two-letter codes in the ISO 3166 standard, “Codes for the Representation of Names of Countries and their Subdivisions”.

MYNIC administers the operation and management of the name space for the ‘.my’ TLD. MYNIC is responsible for registering and assigning third-level domain names ending with ‘.com.my’, ‘.net.my’, ‘.org.my’, ‘.gov.my’, ‘.edu.my’, ‘.mil.my’ and ‘.name.my’. Currently only third-level ‘.my’ domain names can be registered in Malaysia.

MCMC and MYNIC are considering the reintroduction of registering new second-level ‘.my’ domain names (e.g. ‘abc123.my’) to the Malaysian public.

1.2 Consultation Procedure

In this consultation paper entitled “Reintroducing 2nd Level ‘.my’ Domain Name Space”, MCMC and MYNIC would like to invite views and comments from the public on the issues raised in this consultation paper. In order to facilitate this consultation process, questions have been posed for the public’s careful consideration. Notwithstanding this, members of the public are not confined to these questions and are encouraged to raise any issues pertinent to them.

Members of the public are welcome to submit their comments on this consultation paper to 2LD-comments@mynic.net.my. The comments would be most useful if they were substantiated with rationale, examples and alternative proposals. Kindly also include full contact particulars such as full name, designation and organisation name (if relevant), postal address, e-mail address and contact numbers.

The period for public comments is one (1) month and ends on 24 June 2005. Queries about the proposed second-level '.my' domain name and requests for further information can be sent to the same e-mail address as above.

Alternatively, comments can be posted or faxed to:

MCMC and MYNIC extends their appreciation to interested parties for their participation and for providing written submissions in this consultative process.

2. BACKGROUND

- 2.1 A second-level '.my' domain name is a shorter domain name (e.g. 'abc123.my') as compared to a third-level domain name (e.g. 'abc123.com.my', 'abc123.org.my' and 'abc123.gov.my').
- 2.2 Registrations of second-level '.my' domain name ('2LD') were initially allowed in line with international practice relating to the registration of domain names. However, in the late 1990s there was a trend towards categorising domain names into activity segments, such as commercial, network, government, education, etc. which led to the popularity of the third-level domain name format for ccTLD operators. This led to the closure of new 2LD registrations and the creation of third level '.my' domain names by MYNIC. A list of currently registered 2LDs can be found in Appendix A of this consultation paper.
- 2.3 There are currently seven (7) 2LDs, i.e. '.com.my', '.net.my', '.org.my', '.gov.my', '.edu.my', '.mil.my' and '.name.my', under which third level domain names may be registered by the public.

3. REASONS FOR REINTRODUCING 2LDs IN MALAYSIA

- 3.1 The proposed reintroduction of public registration 2LDs is to provide more choice to the public for registering '.my' domain names.
- 3.2 The 2LDs, which are shorter and briefer than third-level domain names will be easier to remember and hopefully will generate more online activity.
- 3.3 The reintroduction of 2LDs is also to respond to the global as well as local demand for second-level domain names. A significant number of ccTLDs are already offering second level domain name registration services, the countries listed in Appendix B are amongst those that offer 2LDs for registration.
- 3.4 Invitation for public comments:

- (a) Would the reintroduction of shorter and briefer 2LDs and consequent lack of categorisation (e.g. '.com', '.net', '.org', '.gov', '.edu', '.mil' and '.name') impact Internet users? If so, how?
- (b) Is this an appropriate time for the reintroduction of 2LDs to the Malaysian public? If not, why?

4. ELIGIBILITY

- 4.1 Registration is open to any individual or legal entity, subject to MYNIC's current rules and regulations for Malaysian domain names and also the Registration Period as discussed in item 6 below. MYNIC's current registration rules and regulations are available in Appendix C of this consultation paper.
- 4.2 Since it is not legally permissible for minors to enter into an agreement with MYNIC for the registration of a domain name, parents and guardians are allowed to register domain names on behalf of minors below eighteen (18) years of age. The 2LD can be transferred from the parents or guardians to the minors when the minors reach eighteen (18) years of age.

5. 2LD REGISTRATION

- 5.1 A 2LD registration will be considered a new registration. If an existing third-level domain name registrant (e.g. abc123.com.my) registers an equivalent 2LD (e.g. abc123.my), the registrant's third-level domain name(s) will continue unaffected unless the registrant instructs MYNIC to delete its third-level domain name(s).

- 5.2 There is no limitation on the number of 2LDs that a person or entity can register.
- 5.3 Applicants and registrants would be required to enter into an agreement with MYNIC in respect of the 2LDs that they seek to have registered and comply with MYNIC's rules and regulations for Malaysian domain names as annexed in Appendix C of this consultation paper.
- 5.4 Invitation for public comments:

- (a) Should a registrant be allowed to register an unlimited number of 2LDs or should there be a maximum number of 2LDs each registrant may register?
- (b) If the answer is the latter, please propose the reason(s) and maximum number of 2LDs that a registrant should be allowed to register.

6. REGISTRATION PERIOD FOR 2LDs

- 6.1 2LDs will be launched in two (2) phases. The first phase will be a two (2) month "Pre-registration Period". This period is essentially a window period for existing third-level '.my' domain name registrants to register the equivalent name as 2LD before the 2LD is opened up for registration to the public.
- 6.2 It is not compulsory for existing third-level domain name holders to register a 2LD during this Pre-Registration Period.
- 6.3 Only registrants who have registered third-level '.my' domain names with MYNIC before or by 5:00 pm on the eve of the commencement of the Pre-registration Period are entitled to apply for the equivalent 2LD during the Pre-registration Period.
- 6.4 Applicants during this Pre-registration Period would have to ensure that the chosen 2LD is exactly the same as their then current registered third-level '.my' domain name, for example a 'abc123.com.my' registrant can only register 'abc123.my' and not 'abc-123.my' or 'abc1234.my' or any other permutation of "abc123".

- 6.5 Registration for 2LDs during the Pre-registration Period will not be on a "first come, first served" basis. Instead, all applications received during the said period will be processed at the end of the Pre-registration Period on the basis of giving priority to the applicant with the earliest original registration, as expanded in item 6.6 below.
- 6.6 A list of overlapping registered third-level '.my' domain names will be displayed on MYNIC's website prior to the Registration Period. Therefore in the event that there are several applications for the same 2LD, priority will be given to the applicant with the earliest original registration. In the following example, priority for registration of "abc123.my" will be given to Company C:

Company	Existing 3 rd LD	Registration Date for 3 rd LD	Application for ' abc123.my '	Registration of ' abc123.my ' after Pre-registration Period
A	abc123.com.my	01/01/1996	No	No
B	abc123.name.my	01/05/2004	Yes	No
C	abc123.net.my	01/06/1999	Yes	Yes
D	abc123.org.my	01/01/2000	Yes	No
E	abc123.edu.my	01/12/1999	Yes	No
F	abc123.mil.my	01/01/2001	Yes	No

- 6.7 Please note that item 6.6 above is subject to the reserved domain names list for public bodies and holders of the existing '.gov.my' third-level domain name as addressed in item 7.2 below.
- 6.8 The second phase will be after the Pre-registration Period. During the second phase, registration of any available 2LDs will be opened up to Malaysian entities and individuals.
- 6.9 In line with MYNIC's policy in registering third-level '.my' domain names, applications during the second phase will be processed on a "first come, first served" basis. Applicants will be required to submit the requisite supporting documents in accordance with MYNIC's then current registration rules and regulations.
- 6.10 At least six (6) months after the commencement of the second phase, MYNIC may take the approach carried out by countries such as Singapore, China, Japan and Hong Kong and open up registration of 2LDs to the world at large.

6.11 As with '.com.my', '.net.my', '.org.my' and '.name.my' domain names, all 2LD applications will be received and processed by MYNIC's resellers. MYNIC will not accept direct registrations. The list of these resellers can be viewed at <http://www.mynic.net.my>

6.12 Invitation for public comments:

- (a) Is the duration for the Pre-registration Period adequate? If not, please suggest a different duration and reason(s) for such alternative duration.
- (b) Should registration of 2LDs be open to the world at large? Is the duration for the second phase adequate?

7. CHOOSING A 2LD NAME

7.1 The 2LD sought to be registered by an applicant must conform to the rules and regulations laid down by MYNIC and must not be prohibited under the laws, rules and administrative regulations of Malaysia.

7.2 MYNIC will maintain a list of reserved domain names corresponding to the third-level domain names for existing '.gov.my' registrants.

7.3 The currently applicable restrictions on third-level domain names, namely MYNIC's "Rules on Choices of Domain Name" (which are annexed to this consultation paper as Appendix D), will apply equally to all 2LDs.

7.4 Invitation for public comments:

- (a) Apart from MYNIC's "Rules on Choices of Domain Name", should
 - (i) other prohibitions or restrictions as to the words, phrases or names that may be used be specifically detailed?
 - (ii) the prohibitions on country or state names be extended to include names of districts and other famous places?If so, please provide a list of such words, phrases or names.

8. FEES

- 8.1 The annual fee and renewal fee for 2LDs will be set by MYNIC's resellers and is subject to a proposed maximum cap of RM200.
- 8.2 As a comparison, Hong Kong is offering '.hk' 2LD at HK$250 per domain name, Denmark is offering '.dk' 2LD at DKK60. (excluding VAT) per domain name, Japan is offering '.jp' 2LD at US$140 per domain name and Ascension Island is offering '.ac' 2LD at US$100 per domain name.
- 8.3 Invitation for public comments:

(a) Is the proposed maximum cap for the registration of a 2LD affordable? If not, please propose a range of alternative fees.

9. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

- 9.1 Disputes in relation to 2LDs registered by MYNIC are ideally to be dealt with in accordance with MYNIC's Domain Name Dispute Resolution Policy ("MYDRP") (the MYDRP can be found at <http://www.rcakl.org.my/policy&rules.html>) which is a domain name dispute resolution service run by the Regional Centre for Arbitration Kuala Lumpur ("RCAKL"). MYNIC will enforce the decisions passed to MYNIC by the RCAKL or any other duly appointed body that offers domain name dispute resolution services in accordance with the MYDRP.
- 9.2 Alternatively, Registrants and complainants also have the choice of resolving a 2LD dispute by way of negotiations, litigating the matter in court or through the means of alternative dispute resolution mechanisms such as mediation or arbitration.

10. OPERATIONAL ISSUES

- 10.1 MYNIC only administers and handles second level domains names registered under the country-code top-level '.my' domain (i.e. 'abc123.my'). Therefore, MYNIC does not register or control any sub-domains created by a 2LD registrant such as 'xyz.abc123.my', 'abc.xyz.abc123.my' and 'def.abc.xyz.abc123.my'.
- 10.2 Since MYNIC has no control on any sub-domains created under a 2LD, the recourse available to any entity or person having issue with regard to a sub-domain registered under a 2LD, is to take up the matter directly with the 2LD registrant.

10.3 Due to the open and unrestricted nature of the 2LD, there are some differences in the operations and process of registering the 2LD.

10.3.1 Domain Name Data Lookup – In line with MYNIC’s practice with the third-level ‘.my’ domain names, MYNIC will provide for a 2LD data lookup. In the case of 2LDs registered by individuals, the lookup display will only reveal the name and e-mail address of the registrant.

10.3.2 Transfer of 2LD - Transfers of 2LDs from one person to another person or one entity to another entity or even from one person to another entity and vice versa are allowed subject to there being no outstanding payments from the current registrant as well as subject to the condition that the new registrant complies with the applicable processes laid down by MYNIC. A flow chart illustrating the process of transferring a 2LD is appended to this consultation paper as Appendix E.

10.3 Invitation for public comments:

| (a) Should 2LDs (e.g. abc123.my) be able to make available or offer sub-domains created under the said 2LDs (e.g. xvz.abc123.my) to third parties? If not, please state the reasons. (b) Does the proposed lookup display for 2LDs provide sufficient information? If not, what other information should be included? |

Rules For Registration Of Personal Domain Names

For the avoidance of doubt, these Rules for Registration of Personal Domain Names shall only apply to .name.my personal domain names.

1) Requirements of Registrants

1. Registrants of the 3rd level .name.my personal domain names are restricted to natural persons/individuals only. Other legal entities (for e.g. companies, partnership, organisation, etc) are not allowed to register .name.my personal domain names.
2. Only Malaysian citizens and non-Malaysians residing in Malaysia aged 18 years old and above are entitled to apply for the .name.my personal domain name.
 - 2.1. In the event the non-Malaysian Registrant is no longer residing in Malaysia, the .name.my personal domain name applied by him/her has to be deregistered immediately.
 - 2.2. When applying for the .name.my personal domain name, Malaysian citizens must submit a photocopy of their National Registration Identity Card (NRIC) and non-Malaysians must submit a photocopy of their passport or any other supporting documents as required by MYNIC.
3. Subject to clause 4 below, individuals are not allowed to register .name.my personal domain name for and on behalf of other individuals or other legal entities (for e.g. company, organisation, society, etc).
4. However, parents, guardians or immediate family members may apply on behalf of a minor who is below the age of 18 years as minors are not allowed to register .name.my personal domain name in their own capacity. PROVIDED ALWAYS that the minor and the parent/guardian/immediate family member concerned are Malaysian citizens and/or non-Malaysians residing in Malaysia.
 - 4.1 For Malaysian citizens, supporting documents for minors are a photocopy of the minor's NRIC or the birth certificate if they do not have a NRIC. For non-Malaysians, a photocopy of their passport or any other supporting documents as required by MYNIC.

- 4.2 The Agreement for Registration of Personal Domain Name is between MYNIC and the parent/guardian/immediate family member concerned, and the parent/guardian/immediate family member is fully responsible for the said .name.my personal domain name.
- 4.3 The .name.my personal domain name may be transferred to the minor upon his/her attainment of 18 years.

II) Specific Rules for Personal Domain Name

1. Registrants must only register the .name.my personal domain name for their personal use and for their own benefit only and must be for lawful purposes. PROVIDED ALWAYS a Registrant who has doubts as to whether his/her use or intended use of personal domain name which is contrary to this clause 1 may write to MYNIC for clarification.
2. Registrants must ensure that their .name.my personal domain name reflects and/or represents their own identity, which includes "legal" name (as per identity card), nickname, stage name, pseudonym and others.
3. Registrants agree that they shall not register .name.my personal domain name through any fraudulent means or devices.
4. Registrants must be responsible for their own .name.my personal domain names and usage thereof.
5. It is the sole responsibility of the Registrants to ensure that the .name.my personal domain name applied for does not infringe any registered and unregistered trademark and does not violate any intellectual property or other laws in Malaysia.
6. Registrants agree that they shall only be entitled to apply for a maximum of eight (8) .name.my personal domain names.
7. MYNIC does not act as an arbiter of any disputes between parties over the rights to use a particular .name.my personal domain name. Any complaints or queries in respect of a particular .name.my personal domain name shall first be addressed to the respective Registrant.
8. Registrants agree and accept that MYNIC does not in any way encourage or condone registration and use of .name.my personal domain names for cybersquatting, hoarding, speculative purposes, or any other abusive purpose ("abusive registration activities"). Registrants are not to encourage nor participate in abusive registration activities either for his/her own purpose or for any third party.
9. The .name.my personal domain name registered in the name of the parent/guardian/immediate family member, referred to in clause 4 of Part I above, may be transferred to the minor upon his/her attainment of 18 years

- if all MYNIC policies and procedures are complied with.
10. MYNIC also reserves the right to suspend or terminate the .name.my personal domain name at any time with prior notice to the Registrant in the event MYNIC receives any official direction from any Malaysian regulatory or Government body.
 11. The charges for the registration or renewal of .name.my personal domain name may be accessed through MYNIC web site address <http://www.mynic.net.my> or such other address which may be notified by MYNIC from time to time whenever it is necessary.

III) Other General Rules

1. In choosing the 3rd level domain name, the following criteria must be complied:
 - 1.1 Registration is on a 'first come first served' basis. Therefore, domain names must not:-
 - 1.1.1 already have been registered to another applicant; or
 - 1.1.2 be the subject of an application currently under consideration by MYNIC.

Doing a search on the MYNIC Domain Name Lookup facility will reveal if the chosen domain name is available.
 - 1.2 The domain name must conform to certain alphanumeric conventions:
 - 1.2.1 It must contain at least 1 character, but no more than 40 characters; and
 - 1.2.2 The characters may comprise the 26 letters [a-z] of the Roman alphabet, the 10 digits [0-9] and the character "-" (hyphen or dash). However, the character "-" (hyphen or dash) can only be used as a separating element. It cannot be used as an initial or final character in a label.
 - 1.2.3 Registrants are not allowed to use other separating elements such as "_" (underscore), "&" (ampersand), "/" (oblique or slash), "." (dot or period), and " " (white space).

1.2.4 The domain name must contain only lower case characters because the domain name system is case insensitive.

2. Please also note the following prohibitions. Domain names must not:

- 2.1 by themselves contain country or state names or well-known names such as "Malaysia", "Malacca", "Johore", etc, or the Bahasa Malaysia equivalents such as "Melaka", "Johor", etc. These domain names may only be applied by the relevant State Authority, or persons who have been duly authorised by the relevant State authority. All applications and/or letters of authorisation must originate from the State Secretary's (Setiausaha Kerajaan Negeri) Office of the relevant State.
- 2.2 by themselves contain words in either English or Bahasa Malaysia, that are sensitive to the main religions in Malaysia such as "Islam", "Buddha", "Hindu", "Christianity", etc.
- 2.3 by themselves or as part of a label, be obscene, scandalous, indecent, offensive or contrary to Malaysian public norms.
- 2.4 by themselves or as part of a label, contain the words "bank" or "finance company" (or any derivative of the words in any language). Only parties who have the written consent of the Minister of Finance (MOF) pursuant to Section 15 of the Banking and Financial Institutions Act 1989 (BAFIA) may apply for these domain names.

3. MYNIC is the sole arbiter of such names violating these rules.

For avoidance of doubt, MYNIC shall be entitled to change any term in this MYNIC Rules for Registration of Personal Domain Name in its sole discretion at any time provided MYNIC notifies Registrants of such amendments via its website.

This document is subject to change by MYNIC from time to time without any prior written notice.

APPENDIX D:

Choosing a Domain Name

Please note that before you apply for a domain name registration under .my, you must meet MYNIC criteria. For individuals applying for personal domain names, please refer to FAQ - About Personal Domain Names. For organisations, your organisation must have a presence in the manner stated in the Supporting Documents.

For basic information on domain names, please refer to the FAQ – About Domain Names.

Top-level domain

MYNIC administers the .my top level domain. However, MYNIC only registers third level domain names (please refer below). Therefore, MYNIC does not register other forms of domain names such as:

www.abc.com.my abc.bcd.com.my abc.my

Second-level domain

These are the second-level domains available for registration:

- com.my For commercial organisations/activities
- net.my For network-related organisations/activities
- org.my For organisations/activities which do not qualify for other categories
- edu.my For Malaysian educational organisations only
- gov.my For Malaysian government organisations only
- mil.my For Malaysian military organisations only
- name.my For Malaysian individual's personal use only

Except for the .gov.my, .edu.my and .mil.my domain names which have special requirements, it is your responsibility to select the most appropriate second level domain name.

For organisations considering .com.my/.net.my/.org.my domain names, your choice of second-level domain name should closely match or best reflect your organisation's area of interest/activities. This is an attempt to avoid confusion in cyberspace, as Internet users often assume some implied correlation with the second level domain name used.

MYNIC does not check for the suitability or appropriateness of the domain name chosen by the Registrant.

Third-level domain

It is this third level domain name that you register with MYNIC. These are examples of third level domain names:

abc.com.my abc.org.my

a-b-c.net.my

It is up to you to choose the third level domain name.

For organisations, you may use your name, brand name, product name, trademarked name, licensed name or other types of name.

For individuals, the .name.my personal domain name should reflect and/or represent your name/identity which includes your full or legal name (as per identity card), variations of your name, nickname, stage name, pseudonym and others. For details, please refer to Rules on Registration of Personal Domain Name.

MYNIC does not check for the suitability or appropriateness of the domain name chosen by the Registrant.

In choosing the 3rd level domain name, the following criteria must be complied:

- Registration is on a 'first come first served' basis. Therefore, domain names must not.
 - already have been registered to another applicant or
 - be the subject of an application currently under consideration by MYNIC.

Doing a search using the MYNIC Whois Service will reveal if your chosen domain name is available.

- Your domain name must conform to certain alphanumeric conventions:

- it must contain at least 1 character, but no more than 40 characters. For example:

a.com.my abcabcabcabc.org.my

- The characters may comprise the 26 letters [a-z] of the Roman alphabet, the 10 digits [0-9] and the character "-" (hyphen or dash). For example:

companyname.net.my organisationname123.gov.my organisationname-123.edu.my

However, the character "-" (hyphen or dash) can only be used as a separating element. It cannot be used as an initial or final character in a label.

- You are not allowed to use other separating elements such as "_" (underscore), "&" (ampersand), "/" (oblique or slash), "." (dot or period), and " " (white space).
- Your domain name must contain only lower case characters because the domain name system is case insensitive.

Note the following prohibitions. Domain names must not:

- By themselves contain country or state names or well-known names such as "Malaysia", "Malacca", "Johore", etc, or the Bahasa Malaysia equivalents such as "Melaka", "Johor", etc.
 - These domain names may only be applied by the relevant State authority, or persons who have been duly authorised by the relevant State authority. All applications and/or letters of authorisation must originate from the State Secretary's (Setiausaha Kerajaan Negeri) Office of the relevant State.
- By themselves contain words in either English or Bahasa Malaysia, that are sensitive to the main religions in Malaysia such as "Islam", "Buddha", "Hindu", "Christianity", etc.
- By themselves or as part of a label, be obscene, scandalous, indecent, offensive or contrary to Malaysian public norms.
- By themselves or as part of a label, contain the words "bank" or "finance" company" (or any derivative of the words in any language). Only parties who have the written consent of the Minister of Finance (MOF) pursuant to Section 15 of the Banking and Financial Institutions Act 1989 (BAFIA) may apply for these domain names.

MYNIC is the sole arbiter of domain names choice violations. However, as far as third party rights are concerned, it is not MYNIC's duty nor responsibility to screen requested domain names to determine whether the use of a domain name by a Registrant may infringe upon the right(s) of a third party.

By applying for the domain name, the applicant certifies that certifies that, to his or her knowledge, the use of this name does not violate Malaysian trademarks, intellectual property, or other laws, and that the domain name is not being registered for any activities not permitted under any law of Malaysia.

Any disputes between parties over the rights to use a particular name are to be settled between the contending parties using normal legal methods. MYNIC does not act as arbiter of disputes.

For trademark related domain name disputes, these are governed by MYNIC's Domain Name Dispute Resolution Policy (MYDRP). Please click here for the FAQ on MYDRP.
