

Visa Decisions

This document contains the latest visa decisions and is updated on a weekly basis

Information for applicants:

In order to locate your application you must have your visa application number to hand as no names will be published. If you do not have this number please contact the Irish Mission where you lodged your application.

To find your application:

1. Click on the "Search" button above - it should look like this:
2. Type your visa application number in the box and press enter / return
3. In a few seconds your application should be displayed, along with the decision number (you may require this for an appeal), the decision, and the visa type or Refusal reason(s) as appropriate

*Please note that if a visa application number does not appear on the list, this means that no decision has been reached in that application as of yet.

If your application has been approved, please contact the Irish Mission where you made your application, or the Visa Office in Dublin if lodged directly in Dublin.

If your application has been Refused:

- Click here for explanation of reasons for refusal
- Click here for explanation of appeal procedure

If your application is not found:

- Please check that you entered the correct application Reference number
- When did you lodge your application? Applications take 4-6 weeks to process from the time they are received in Dublin. Transfer of applications from abroad can take up to 2 weeks for some locations
- If your application was lodged recently, please be patient - all applications are dealt with in the order they are received. There is no need to telephone the helpline unless more than 6 weeks have passed

Please note that in cases where specific documents etc. are listed as missing or not submitted, it should not be assumed that submission of these documents will guarantee the issue of a visa
