

Find what you want in WorldCat

WorldCat is multilingual

Speak a language other than English? Studying one? Maybe you're doing research and need a particular book printed in German? Whatever the reason, WorldCat is a great place to locate materials produced in almost any language.

WorldCat will first show you what's available at your library. If you can't find what you need there, look up what other libraries have to loan.

LANGUAGES

What you can find

- Language dictionaries
- Non-English films
- Fiction books in French
- Latin American music
- Health books in Japanese
- Country- and language-specific newspapers
- Language tapes and instructional materials

Let's get started!

1. Ask a librarian to help you bring up a WorldCat search screen on a library workstation, or visit www.worldcat.org from your computer at home or work.
2. Enter a keyword such as subject, title or a person's name and click Search. Click on the title of an item that interests you to learn more about it.
3. Inside the library, you can follow a link to our online catalog to see if the item is available. On worldcat.org, enter your location and click on the name of this library or another nearby library.

A librarian can help you use WorldCat or locate the item you want.

WorldCat is the world's largest database of library collections