

Job Description:	New Zealand Football U-17 Men's National Team Goalkeeping Coach
Job Title:	New Zealand Football U-17 Men's National Team Goalkeeping Coach
Reports to:	High Performance Manager/Team Head Coach
Direct Reports:	None
Status:	Part-Time Employee
Salary:	Daily rate applicable to time in camp and on tour only

Roles & Responsibilities:

In liaison with the New Zealand Football High Performance Manager, the New Zealand Football U17 Men's National Team Goalkeeping Coach will have overall responsibility for the planning, implementation and continual improvement of the programme for goalkeepers within the New Zealand Football U-17 Men's National Team. This will include:

- Undertake the technical programme for goalkeepers as directed by the High Performance Manager
- To work in conjunction with the head coach on the general technical programme.
- Responsibility for all equipment necessary for the delivery of the technical programme pertaining to goalkeepers development programme.
- Advise the head coach on goalkeeper team selection
- Pre-match warm up of the goalkeeper/s and post match warm down of the goalkeeper(s)
- Provide a summary to the head coach at half time on technical and tactical analysis with regard to goalkeepers and the team.
- Input on goalkeeping substitutions

Required Experience & Qualifications

The New Zealand Football U-17 Men's National Team Goalkeeping Coach should have the following experience and qualifications:

- Very strong coaching background, preferably with international experience
- Recognised goalkeeping coaching licence
- Experience in developing annual plans for the preparation of goalkeepers
- Awareness of the importance of, and strong background of drawing on the expertise of, specialists in areas such as exercise physiology and biomechanics;
- Experience of leading, or working as part of, an interdisciplinary support team.

Required Skills:

In addition to the requisite skills in relation to coaching, the New Zealand Football U-17 Men's National Team Goalkeeping Coach will possess highly developed inter-personal and people skills, to ensure the establishment of successful partnerships with all relevant stakeholders, both within the sport and outside the sport.

Specifically, the following skills are vitally important:

- Leadership – leading positively, by example;
- Communication – active, regular, effective communicator;
- Inter-personal relationships – working successfully with people;
- Management – effective skills.

At a personal level, the successful applicant will have demonstrated a strong awareness of world's best practice in coaching, and have shown personal motivation to achieve excellence in all areas, through drawing on the expertise of others and engaging in continual independent research and evaluation.

Applications close Friday 7th August and can be submitted to Tracy Brady at tracy.brady@nzfootball.co.nz